*Children beginning in the level I class are typically between 18 & 24 months of age. We will determine placement or transition to the next levels as they have turned 2 and met certain criteria developmentally.

*Children assigned to the level II class are typically 2 years of age and will be advanced as they meet certain criteria developmentally as well.

*All children must be completely potty trained to advance or be placed in the level III, & level IV classes. Exceptions will not be made.

Please feel free to provide details of group settings your child may have experienced in the past. i.e. preschool, sunday school, or play group settings. Please also share discipline techniques that work at home for you and your expectations of their preschool day:
