Jeremie Earthquake Relief

A message from our friends at Haiti Foundation Against Poverty:

Dear HFAP Family,

Saturday morning major earthquakes shook Haiti. The gates and buildings of Hope House and Gift of Hope rattled as our staff and children ran out of buildings in terror. Thankfully we did not experience physical damage at our properties, but the reports coming from our agriculture communities and the cities of Lakay and Jeremie are much different.

Among the reports, we can confirm there has been collapsed buildings, broken bones, and loss of life. Please join us in prayer right now.

It's hard to fathom the constant suffering and state of emergency our beloved country of Haiti endures. Words cannot describe the panic, fear, and horror our friends and families are experiencing today.

We have received confirmation that some of our family members and farmers have lost their homes. Fatalities and injury counts are rising in the cities of Jeremie and Lakay. The needs will be many, and we have people on the ground ready to assist. Please go to haitipoverty.org to make a donation for earthquake recovery efforts.*

In addition, here are specific ways you can pray over Haiti today:

- Pray for more successful recoveries of people who are trapped beneath rubble
- Pray for the gangs to release the ambulance of 12 injured people they are holding hostage
- Pray for our farmers and family members who just lost everything they owned yet again
- Pray for those who are injured to receive medical attention quickly
- Pray for those mourning the sudden loss of loved ones
- $\,$ Pray for the mental health of everyone who is suffering reawakened trauma left by the 2010 earthquake

Thank you for your prayers and continued generosity in the wake of further heartbreaking tragedy for Haiti.

*Or you can put a check in the offering box (make the check out to Rockford Reformed Church and put Haiti in the notes section) and we'll get the money to them.
