Focal Point / Youth Group / KidLife Club starts back up tonight at 5pm. We are offering three classes for Focal Point:

Last semester we had a wonderful class looking at Alisa Childer's book Another Gospel which highlighted many false teachings which have crept into the church recently. As a follow up, we want to take time to study a classic book – J I Packer's Knowing God. This is one of the best books we know to give a solid foundation in knowing who God is and why that matters. It wonderfully explains the importance of theological study of the Lord, what the Bible has to say about God and His character, and the benefits of knowing Him. This class is for everyone, from seekers to mature believers.

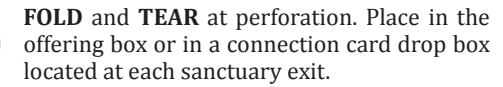

What are you afraid of? If fear and anxiety fill your days, or live in the corner of your mind, you are not alone. There is a path to hope, peace, and rest. Using Rev. Dr. Edward T. Welch's book Running Scared as a guide, we will explore what God says about fear and anxiety and how the gospel can lead us out.

We are continuing our Focal Point Bible study on the book of James. Dive deep into discussions led by Mike, helping us all get a better understanding of the gospel, its impact on our daily lives, and how we can lean more on God every day. Arrive at 5pm for fellowship, worship, and dinner. Study will start at 6pm in Room 250. You are welcome to eat during the discussion.
