Healing and the Holy Spirit: What does the Bible teach about God's saving and healing power today? How do we overcome barriers to believing and experiencing that power? Register today for a great two-day conference at Fourth Reformed Church where we will focus on the power of God to radically change our lives. Led by Tim Vink, Director of the Alliance of Reformed Churches. The conference is on Friday, February 23 from 6-8:30pm and Saturday, February 24 from 9am - 2:30pm. The Healing Service will take place Saturday at 6pm. The conference is free to attend, and lunch and snacks are provided. Register online at fourthchurch.com.

We will see a short video during worship today that will provide an update from our missionaries Gary and Rachel de Leon and their boys Xavi and Iker, who are serving refugees in Spain through Resonate Global Mission. Their ministry is called "Project Miklat" which means "refuge and meeting" in Hebrew in the passage from Psalm 46. They chose this name to represent the refuge, that is God, for those who seek Him and as they find themselves in this situation as refugees, they are able to feel loved and protected by a supportive community surrounding them. Project Miklat has over 28 nationalities represented and they process about 615 asylum seekers every month. "We have learned so much about the refugee community that it feels like we have been here much longer than a year. They have shared with us the challenges they have faced along their journey to get to Spain. The memories they still have of their home countries, their loved ones they have left behind, and so much more. We have the wonderful opportunity to share God's love to so many people of various nationalities and cultures. It's truly a wonderful experience to serve where God has placed us in Spain." – Gary & Rachel de Leon
