To: All Parents/Guardians/Youth

Thank you for reviewing this material before submitting it to GYM Leadership with parent's signed consent, and the signature of the youth.

It is our sincere interest to provide a wholesome program, in a safe environment, where respect for Christian values is upheld for the benefit of everyone involved.

Leaders and Attendees of our GYM Program are asked to demonstrate:

- Respect for the Lord, the church property, facilities, equipment, and for the fact that we offer a Christian program for those that attend.
- Respect for the Authority of those who are in Leadership, and for the rules and regulations that they communicate.
- Respect for other people. Actions or attitudes that are unkind, belittling, or bullyish are strictly prohibited. Thank you for refraining from using any language that is profane, discriminatory, offensive or questionable. Also, no inappropriate subjects of conversation. Behavior that is unruly, disruptive, or distracting is unacceptable.
- Respect for the program. When the event is in progress, please participate. Use of cellphones, or other distracting items during worship, focus time, group discussion or prayer is inappropriate.
- Respect for Rules regarding items that are inappropriate, such as tobacco products or vaping.
- Respect for relationship behavior. No holding hands, showing affection, or separating yourself from the group.
- Respect for GYM dress code. The dress code is intended to promote self-respect, respect for others, and respect for the Holy Spirit.

GYM Dress Code is as follows:

- No short shorts, skirts or dresses. (Here's how to tell if they're too short – let your arms hang at your side, if your fingertips are below your shorts/skirt/dress they're too short.)
- No crop tops, low cut tops (front or back), no spaghetti straps or strapless tops.

Thank you for having a good heart attitude about dressing modestly and appreciating that others do the same. In everything we do, including the way we dress, we represent the Lord.

We agree, as a youth attending GYM and as a parent/guardian of a youth attending GYM to abide by the GYM Rules and Dress Code.
