

Advent with FAST

Journey through the Advent season with us with our Advent Study Guides. Explore with us how survivors of human trafficking have found joy, hope, peace, and love through Jesus Christ. We have created both a Daily Study Guide and a Sunday Guide. The Daily Guide explores a different verse for each day of Advent, as well as a meditation connecting the verse to human trafficking, ending with a prayer for each day. The Sunday version is for your church or small group to do. It includes a verse, meditation, a prayer, as well as a story from a survivor, and suggested songs.

End of Year Donations

As we near the end of the year, many individuals in the United States are considering whom to donate to for Giving Tuesday and their end-of-year donations. We encourage you to donate to FAAST. All donations are tax-deductible, and everyone will receive a receipt documenting their donation. Donating to FAAST helps us to continue creating new resources for the community and congregation for awareness and education purposes.

Hands that Heal Training

Educating our community is a vital way to oppose human trafficking. One way you can educate your community is by hosting a Hands that Heal training. The Hands that Heal curriculum provides a comprehensive approach to survivors of trafficking and educating caregivers so that they may appropriately and effectively provide care and support. The training inspires people to engage against human trafficking and trains individuals how to provide transformational care to survivors of human trafficking. To learn more about how to host a training, email FAAST at faast@faastinternational.org.

Prayer

A prayer from the Catholic Commission for Social Justice Prayer Book

Come Lord, Jesus!

Open our eyes to see your love in this day and throughout this Advent Season. Make us attentive people so that we may truly meet you in the happy and painful events of our lives.

Give us the courage to face the darkness in our personal lives and in our nation that we may be a people of faith who are light for others.

Stir us in our complacency.

Give us compassion and tolerance for others
so that we may stand in solidarity with those who are poor and disadvantaged, and work together to create a world of love, justice and harmony.

Come Lord, Jesus!
