

MOSES: The Man Moses
Exodus 2:11-25

Discussion questions:

1. Overall, was there anything in this passage/story that surprised you and/or anything learned that you might not have known before?
2. In light of what Moses saw and learned concerning the treatment of his “brothers,” could we consider murder a justifiable option?
3. Can you relate to anything in your life that caused such great anguish and/or rage? What was your response?

Takeaways:

1. In considering or contemplating your past, what are some of the experiences and general life of home, family, school, friends, work, or other people or things that have helped shape you today?
2. Through this story of Moses have you considered or learned more about who you are?
3. In what areas of life do you believe God might be shaping you today?