

WINTER KICKOFF: FAQ's

Share with each other about your Christmas holiday season.

What, if any, were the high points? What, if any, were the low points?

What was the favorite present you received?

What was your favorite present to give?

What, if anything, are you excited about in 2019?

Sunday's sermon began by suggesting that the purposes of a church are really not that different than our purposes as individuals. Those purposes include (i) loving, worshipping, and glorifying God; (ii) loving others; and (iii) making disciples.

Are any of those three things easy for you to do?

Are any of those three things difficult for you to do?

Sunday's sermon provided information about CEFC's ministries, upcoming events, and other things.

Do you think it is easy or challenging for people who are new to any church to connect and learn what opportunities are available?

What, if anything, can people who have been at a church for a while do to help people who are newer to a church?

In 2019, the Sunday sermons will focus on the book of Matthew. We will divide Matthew into several, smaller sermon series. Those series will include: Jesus beginning his reign as king; Christians and the various issues they face; prayer; money; and Jesus claiming to be the only way to salvation.

Have you ever studied the book of Matthew?

Which of those topics/series sound most interesting and helpful to you?

Do you think it is beneficial to study what Jesus did and what He taught?