

Kingdom prayer of invocation

A prayer of invocation is a prayer of high honor and praise to the God of all creation, asking him to join his people as they worship him. Prayers of invocation are some of the most glorious and inspiring of prayers, because they attempt to convey the true character, power and majesty of God in a few words. They also explicitly show our continual need of his love and grace, because we are not holy.

O Most High come and bless your people so that our way is blameless and we walk according to your truth. Hear our prayers and dwell in the midst of our praises. Bring light to our minds, gladness to our hearts and a submissive obedience to our wills. We are gathered here by your command and as celebration of your resurrection from the dead. We bring the very best of our past week as offering to you because it is only by grace that we have every success, every step of progress and every benefit. We also bring the worst of our past week because only you can forgive sin and only you can wash away our failures and careless disobedience. If we live or die we are yours and we ask that you remember us and your covenant mercies, sealed to all believers by the blood of our faithful Savior. Give us the joy of salvation as we worship you today. We make all prayers in the name of Jesus, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Amen.
