

Kingdom prayer of invocation, 3

A prayer of invocation is a prayer of high honor and praise to the God of all creation, asking him to join his people as they worship him. Prayers of invocation are some of the most glorious and inspiring of prayers, because they attempt to convey the true character, power and majesty of God in a few words. They also explicitly show our continual need of his love and grace, because we are not holy.

O Lord, you who give help to the children of Abraham, draw near to us and raise us to newness of life. We ask that our eternal Father would be pleased to dwell in our praises. We ask that the divine Son who took on our humanity would stand with us in this life and would speak for us in the day of judgment. We ask that the Holy Spirit would come upon us to give us faith and that he would show us the beauty of our faithful Savior. We now receive from him joy, power, peace and his witness that we are the children of God. Hear our prayers because we do not pray in our own name but in the name of the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Amen
