

Small Groups Questions

Exodus 4:18-5:23

1. Read Exodus 4:18-5:23 together. This passage is packed with different things the Lord might speak to us about. What stood out most to you?
2. In Exodus 4:27-28, the LORD reconnected the brothers, Moses and Aaron, after 40 years. They went back to Egypt as a team of two (vv.29-31). What difference would this have made to Moses? How might this connect to Jesus' practice of sending out his disciples two by two (Mark 6:7, 10:1)? Who is your second? Your "Aaron"?
3. The LORD made it clear in Exodus 4:23 that His purpose in redeeming the Israelites was so they may worship/serve Me. (The words "worship" and "serve" are the same Hebrew word.) The LORD repeats this purpose statement often. Read Exodus 4:23, 7:16, 8:1, 8:20, 9:1, 9:13, 10:3, 10:7-11, 10:24-26, 12:31. As you listen to these ten passages of purpose, what thoughts do they raise in your mind about worship?
4. Moses obeyed God in Exodus 5, yet things seemed to fall apart before his very eyes! Pharaoh refused to let the Israelites go (5:1-13), Pharaoh abused the Israelites even more harshly (5:14-19), and the Israelites turned on Moses and Aaron (5:20-21). What do you think the LORD was teaching Moses about obedience?

Prayer Requests

If ever there was a time to pray for revival, it's now, our 50th anniversary year. Please join us for Revival Prayer in the Fellowship Hall on Wednesdays at 6pm.
