About Jason

Jason pastors at Sojourners Church in Fullerton, CA where he has focused on the formation of disciples. Jason's ministry integrates the development of spiritual formation through a missional lens. He is trained as a spiritual director, loves his role as chaplain to the police department, and serves many ministries and organizations throughout his city. He coaches and connects pastors and churches to God's mission in the city and helps them connect that mission to discipleship and intimacy with God. He is married to Carol and has two teenage daughters.
