

FCOG Children/Youth Consent, Release and Medical Form

Back to School is upon us and with it brings new and exciting events for our Children and Youth here at the First Church of God. By completing the information below, you will be giving permission for your children to attend and participate in First Church of God – Jefferson City events held both here at the church as well as activities held off campus. Please Note: You may be asked to complete additional Consent/Release/Medical Forms for events held in conjunction with State or National Events. Those forms will be distributed as needed throughout the year. This form will be valid from June 2021 – May 2022.

Please complete the information below and return to the Church Office by 6/1/2021.
