Who Is Your One PART II: Pro Tips from Jesus

1. Read John 3
2. If you were part of the challenge last year to pray for your “ONE”, who did you pick to pray for? What are your reflections on the challenge one year out? Are you aware if there is/was any spiritual movement in their heart this past year?
3. Have you ever had a conversation about spiritual things with someone who was searching for answers? What were the circumstances of that conversation and how did you handle it? When that conversation was over what were you left feeling/thinking?
4. Have you ever had someone throw you a curve ball during a spiritual conversation? What was it and how did you handle it? How could you prepare yourself to “pivot” during a spiritual conversation?
5. What’s the difference between “pivoting” during a spiritual conversation and being the “bible answer person”?
6. Why do you feel that focusing on Jesus is important to a conversation about spiritual things? What does a focus on Jesus do to a conversation about spiritual things?
7. The message emphasized preparing to invite belief in your conversation about spiritual things. Have you had a conversation where you found yourself inviting belief in the person and work of Jesus Christ? If so, what happened? Some people have a tension in their hearts imagining having this type of conversation with someone. How would you help that person through that tension?
8. Releasing the results of a spiritual conversation with someone to the Providence and sovereignty of God requires mindfulness. Discuss the role of prayer in that process. Are you in this season of waiting/release with someone? Describe who you are/could be praying for? Close your time praying for those you know don’t have a personal belief in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
