

Sermon Discussion Questions

Who Is Your One?

Luke 15

1. What is a story from your past where you lost something that was very important or valuable? Did you find it? What was your reaction?
2. Reread Luke 15.
3. Why do you think Jesus spends so much time on developing the detail in the third story? What makes that story so much more significant than the other two?
4. What do these stories tell us about how Jesus views people?
5. People say “my thoughts and prayers are with you”. What’s the difference between a thought and a prayer? Why is that difference significant?
6. Can you share with the group who your “one” is? Why did you choose that person? How can you help your group members remember that “one” in prayer throughout this year—to carry a burden for that “one”?
