1. In Psalm 90:12, Moses prays for God to teach him to number his days. How can taking this approach help us?
 - a. By doing so, Moses expects to gain a heart of wisdom. What wisdom do we gain from this?
2. Martha's distractions kept her from spending time with Jesus. Brian shared how his phone has been a distraction from spending time with his family.
 - a. What distracts you from focusing on the more important things in life?
 - b. How can you limit this distraction?
3. Martha was serving Jesus and His disciples—all actions that could be deemed as good. Yet, Jesus ranked Martha's choice as being under Mary's. Sometimes we have to say no to good things, in order to say yes to great. Share an example of a time you said no to a "good" thing in order to say yes to a "great" thing. Was this a difficult decision?
4. Read Ephesians 5:15-17.
 - a. How do you ensure you live as wise and not unwise?
 - b. What does Paul mean by saying the days are evil?
 - c. How can we know the Lord's will?
5. Have you ever taken an inventory of how you spend your time? What did you find? If not, what do you think you would find?
6. What are the things you value most?
 - a. Are these values currently revealed in how you spend your time?
 - b. What changes could you make to spend more time on the things you value most?
7. The story of Mary and Martha indicates Jesus' value of spending time with Him. How would you evaluate how you currently spend time in solitude with Jesus?
