“What is My Role in a ‘Why God’ World?”
2 Corinthians 1:1-7
July 9, 2017

1. Brian talked about suffering as the gap between what you wish life gave you and what life actually gave you. Based on that definition, how are you currently suffering?
2. For many, it is easier to help others, than to receive help. Why is this the case? Is it for you?
3. We comfort people by “giving them Jesus.” How does this play out in your life, in your HDG, neighborhood, job, family, etc.?
4. We comfort people by giving ourselves. How are we doing with this? What gets in the way of being present with others while they’re suffering?
5. Why does suffering bring some people closer to God, yet turn others further from Him?
 - a. Have you had moments in your life when you faced suffering and are able to look back and know your faith is stronger having gone through it?
6. Can you identify anyone in your life who is suffering? What role can you play in their suffering?
