

SULLIVAN FIRST

MESSENGER

JANUARY 2026

Reverend J. Mike Smith

Mike is a retired UMC pastor with over fifty years of pastoral experience in local churches. He has served in numerous conference leadership roles through the years. After retiring in 2020, he has been appointed by three different bishops to serve several churches that needed short term, transformative leadership. In addition, he has developed an innovative and experimental program for churches wanting to turn their stories around, “Working the Map,” and has five churches currently engaged in that. Mike is a part time professional (certified) tour guide for Chicago. He writes a regular blog, speaks at conferences, has published a book of humorous/reflective essays titled “Teaching the Preacher to Curse.” His wife Jie (pronounced like the letter “J”) is the pastor of the Mansfield United Methodist Church. They have three daughters and four grandchildren. Mike’s mother lives in an assisted living facility in Pana, Illinois. For hobbies he enjoys reading, writing, gardening, map collecting, presidential biographies, tennis, cooking, and traveling. He does not enjoy exercising, but does it three times a week anyway. His current writing projects include a book on economics for churches, a biblical commentary on Matthew, and a novel titled “Nine Old Men.” But those writing will all be on hold while he is serving the Sullivan First UMC.

JANET RONEY

World War II Years

Our fifty-fourth pastor was Rev. Stanley Ward who served from 1940 to 1943. He was born in London, England in 1879 and was just 3 years old when his parents came to the USA and settled in Chicago. He graduated from Northwestern University and Boston. Schools of Theology, married, and had three girls and a son, Greig.

World War II started during his ministry in Sullivan, and he led our church members in supporting the war effort via blood drives, scrap drives, and supporting our many young men who volunteered to serve or were drafted.

One of our young members, Howard Murray, was the first Sullivan citizen to die during the war in 1942 when his plane went down at Pensacola during a training flight. Howard's father, Hugh, was the Sunday School Superintendent, and his mother, Nellie, and sister, Carol, were the nursery and primary Sunday School teachers when I was a child.

The second Sullivan citizen to die in World War II was Rev. Stanley Ward's own son, Greig, who was the pilot of a B-24 bomber that was shot down over the Solomon Islands by a Japanese Zero in July, 1943, shortly after Rev. Ward was transferred to Auburn, Illinois. The bodies of Lt. Greig Ward and his 9 other crew mates were never recovered.

He left a wife and two month old baby girl.

I don't remember Rev. Ward, but he was the pastor who baptized me as an infant sometime in 1942, along with most of the young people I grew up with in the church. He and his wife, Nellie, are buried in Bloomington, IL.

The next pastor after Rev. Ward was Rev. Lewis S. Ellison, a native of Vandalia, Illinois. The conference archives record of him says he served just one year from 1943 to 1944. His parents were Methodists, but he joined the United Brethren Church for a while and was first licensed to preach by them. After his marriage, he switch to the Methodists and was received into the Illinois Conference. He eventually graduated from the Garrett Biblical Institute in 1914.

Rev. Ellison preached a total of thirty years, including his term at Sullivan, his last pastorate. After Sullivan, he became a fund raiser for Illinois Wesleyan University. "His belief in the stewardship of possessions made it natural and easy for him to approach people for gifts of money for kingdom purposes with the same confidence he would seek Sunday School teachers or members for his Official Boards. His years with the Wesleyan were fruitful ones and he made many steadfast friends for the institution."

The archive record of him also described him as a successful pastor. "He never lost contact with young people." He died at age 74 in 1949 in an auto-train accident in Springfield.

HAPPY
Anniversary!

From the Finance office....

The budget for this current year was set at $415,368. To date, we have spent a total of $355,901.35 and taken in tithes of $370,832.48. With remaining costs for the rest of 2025 and current average tithes coming in, pending no large, unexpected costs, we are set to complete the year without having to dip into reserves. Our expenses have been lower, due to job openings and revised and re-evaluated spending.
