CONNECT

Our world is full of fractured and broken relationships. The Glenwood family helps this broken and fallen world stand up again through connection. We Connect with each other through Connection Groups and special interest ministries such as college, men's, women's, and older adult ministries. These are a great way to get connected at Glenwood and to walk alongside others who want to love God more deeply and become more like Jesus. In connection ministries, we pray, eat, serve, and explore the meaning and relevance of Scripture together. We hold each other up and give one another the strength to stand.

Connection Groups

"And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you" (1 Thessalonians 3:12). These are the Apostle Paul's words to the ancient church in Thessalonica. In Jesus, God is creating a new humanity held together by love. Love is what unites us and helps a fallen world stand up again. Love is relational. Love is about connection. This is why Glenwood meets in smaller groups, known as Connection Groups, throughout the month. We desire to build prayerful and supportive relationships where love can thrive. Some groups simply meet, eat, and pray. Others worship together. Some will discuss Scripture or the Sunday morning sermon. And still others will find ways to serve in the community. But the essence of all our groups is relationship rooted in love for God and one another.
