Life. Uplifted.

RENEW

One byproduct of fallenness is depletion. We are a depleted, exhausted, running-on-empty society. God has called us, however, to Renew our hearts and minds by cultivating regular habits such as prayer, worship, reading Scripture, being with other Christians, and serving the world in the name of Christ. These are often referred to as Christian spiritual disciplines. At Glenwood, we want to help you engage these disciplines on a regular basis in our Sunday morning classes and we want to equip you to engage these disciplines regularly with our Stand@Home ministries.

Classes

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God” (Romans 12:2). Renewal of the mind leads to life transformation. Transformation opens our hearts to discern God’s presence and purposes in the world. For this reason, each Sunday morning we meet in classrooms throughout the building to read Scripture, discuss its meaning for us today, and discern the voice of God in our midst. These classes seek to engage the kind of truth that really challenges our way of thinking and can thus transform our way of living.
