SUNDAY MORNING CLASS SERIES

I & II Chronicles: David McCullough once wrote: “History is a guide to navigation in perilous times. History is who we are and why we are the way we are.” The biblical books of II Chronicles record the history of Israel during some of its most glorious and perilous times. In recording the chapters centered on great triumphs as well as tremendous defeats, the author’s purpose was singular: to provide hope. These often-overlooked books of the Bible remind ancient Israel and contemporary Tylerites that God reigns supreme in good times and in bad. God’s covenant promises are strong and reliable. Join us Sundays this fall at 9:00 a.m. as we journey into the past to be reminded of God’s ever-present power, faithfulness, and love.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT SERIES

The Jesus I Never Knew: Who is Jesus? If that simple question were posed to you this very moment, how would you answer? Many of us would draw upon our vivid memories of Sunday school classes, filled with flannel graph boards and Children’s Bibles to paint a picture of a meek and mild, always patient, Precious-Moments-figurine Jesus, complete with tear drop eyes and freshly-washed light blue robe. In reality, however, Jesus was much more complex. Sometimes, Jesus was angry. More than once, Jesus engaged in heated confrontations with people. Given the crowd with whom Jesus associated, He likely was not a quiet hermit. Join us each Wednesday night this fall at 6:30 p.m. in the Gathering Place as we take a close look at the life of Jesus through the lens of Philip Yancey’s classic book, The Jesus I Never Knew. There may be more to this man than you think!
