

This is What I Was Made For!

Week 1: Know God
DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

RECAP

In the first week of this series, we introduced the idea that helping people get to the point where they can say about their life, "This is what I was made for!" happens when we know God, find freedom, discover purpose and make a difference.

MTVGROUP QUESTIONS

1. Talk about your childhood. Josh shared a story about a playground and how his mind was blown. What are some of the most memorable experiences from your childhood, when your mind was blown and you experienced something you never knew existed before?
2. Josh contrasted the two playgrounds as two ways that people (even Christians) live. If you were honest, would you say you're living in the first playground or the second? Do you feel like you're leaning into the full potential God has for you? What's holding you back?
3. Read Genesis 1:1. Since the beginning mankind has sought to know God, although sometimes we get the wrong idea. Have you ever perceived God as the Cop Around the Corner, the Unmerciful Judge or the Demanding Taskmaster? How difficult is it to view God as a loving Heavenly Father?
4. Josh spent time talking about how MTVchurch was intentional with its worship services as the primary way to help people know God. What are some of the things about worship services that are the most meaningful to you?
5. The message finished with the staff sharing how they came to know God. What's your story? How did you come to know God? Who invited you?

NEXT STEPS

Josh finished by saying that our responsibility was to invite others to know God through our worship services. Who can you invite to come to church with you next Sunday? Be specific with names and pray for boldness this week to invite!
