"The Church for All People, Serving God through Serving Others"

115 West South 1st Street, Seneca, SC 29678

864-882-2505 www.sprez.org

To those newly worshipping with us we warmly welcome you to our congregation. You are invited to join us for any and all of the activities and opportunities we provide. Please let us know if we can serve you in any way. We also extend an invitation to unite with this church. Periodically we offer a series of Inquirer's Classes that explore the meaning of church membership in our Presbyterian tradition. Those interested in membership are encouraged to participate in these classes. If you are interested in conversation about membership, do not hesitate to call the church office at 882-2505 at any time.

A Word from Your Interim Pastor

THE GREAT REMINDER

One of my favorite Christmas stories: a boy named Benjamin, who wanted a big sister for Christmas, wrote a letter to God.

God, I've been a very good boy. He stopped, crumpled up his paper, started over. God, I've been a good boy. He paused. God might not be impressed, better go with Plan B. He got a towel from bathroom, went to the Christmas tree, found the nativity set, grabbed Mary, wrapped her up in the towel, put a rubber band around it and re-wrote his letter...

"God, if you ever want to see your mother again"

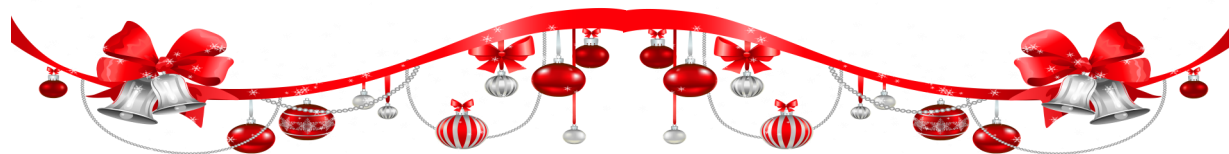

There's a Benjamin in us all! We'd never write God a letter or hold Mary hostage; we adults use different tactics. We bargain with God, "if you do this, I'll do that". In our brains we know that God can't be manipulated but our hearts won't buy it. The most common way to bribe God is to doubt his goodness or question his loving nature. This short-circuits what God wants to do in us. Let me give you a spiritual principle: what you think about God is the most important thing about you. Mull it over! The way we view God shapes our destiny; how we view ourselves, how we view others. In Jesus-this baby born in a barn, this poor preacher of Palestine-God has spoken as clearly as God will ever speak. He wasn't just a good teacher or a prophet. His claims were too outrageous; his actions spoke louder than human words ever have. After Bethlehem, God is no longer a pleasant idea. For the lack of a better word, God has a personality. Jesus reveals God to us, and not vice versa. His very name gives his mission away...

"JESUS, HE WHO SAVES"

God knew that we needed a SAVIOR before we did. Saving us from sin wasn't God's only goal. His main reason: God is fond of you. If God has a refrigerator in heaven, your picture is on it. He likes having you in his family. Say it yourself in times of suffering: God is for me! He proved it on a Cross. Apart from Jesus, you'd never know how much you are loved. God considered your needs, and the value of having a relationship with you, so crucial that he was willing to go through the trauma of changing places. It is not just that Jesus is God but that, as God, he chose to become one of us-an act of humility the likes of which the world has never known. Keep this as your Christmas focus: Jesus is the reason for the season. For a brief period, the doors to the throne room were open and God came near. Heaven touched the earth. Let me bring this message all the way home:

JESUS WAS AND IS EVERYTHING. HE IS NOT JUST A PART OF OUR FAITH; HE IS OUR FAITH; HIS WORD WAS GOD'S WORD; HIS SPIRIT WAS GOD'S SPIRIT; WHAT HE STOOD FOR, GOD STOOD FOR.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR WORSHIP

Advent Sundays in December at 9:00 & 11:00 a.m. - join us as we celebrate Advent by anticipating Christmas through the lighting of the Advent candles and through music. We also focus our Scripture and messages on different aspects of the meaning of this time of year.

Special Musical Offerings by Our Chancel Choir and HandBell Choir

- December 9: The handbells will play seasonal music during the 11:00 a.m. worship service.
- December 16: The Christmas Cantata will be a combined service at 10:00 a.m. Stars of Glory by Tom Fettke will be performed by the Chancel Choir with guest instrumentalists.

Quiet Christmas Service of Worship – December 18, 12:15 p.m. The Christmas season comes with many varied emotions: joy, anticipation, and warm memories; stress, exhaustion, and often invasive memories of loss. The service of Quiet Christmas offers an opportunity to acknowledge that not everything about Christmas is joy and light. It provides safe space to claim loss in whatever form it may come, from death and grief or simply through separation from the source of the season’s light that is meant to bring us joy. The service is brief, will take place in the sanctuary, and includes the sacrament of Holy Communion.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES

One Small Child

Family Christmas Service – Come see all of our angels, shepherds, kings, sheep, and other animals as children of all ages reenact the Nativity. This is a great service for grandchildren and neighbors with children. Every child who shows up and wants to participate becomes part of this marvelous impromptu telling of the Christmas story, complete with costumes. No rehearsals or notice necessary. You need bring nothing. Just come. There is plenty of singing by all who come as well. This service will begin at 5:00 p.m.

A Candlelight Service of Lessons and Carols with Communion – This traditional Christmas Eve service includes Scripture, hymns, special music, and the sacrament of Holy Communion, which all Christians and their children are invited to share. The service will end with a beautiful and meaningful candlelight service. This service will begin at 8:00 p.m.

FIFTH SUNDAY PEANUT BUTTER – Every fifth Sunday this congregation presents an offering of peanut butter that will be given to the Golden Corner Food Pantry. Peanut butter is wonderfully nutritious but also too expensive to purchase in bulk, so your contributions are greatly appreciated. Don't forget your peanut butter on Sunday, December 30th.

Explanation of our Chrismon tree and Chrismon ornaments

The evergreen tree, which symbolizes the eternal life which our Savior has won for us, is a background for tiny white lights and white and gold Chrismons. The lights speak of Him who is the light of the world. A Chrismon (medieval Latin word meaning a symbol of Christ or Christianity, or a "Christ-Monogram") proclaims the Name, the Life and the Saving Acts of Jesus the Christ. White, the liturgical color for Christmas, suggests the innocence, purity, and perfection of our Savior. Gold, as a symbol, stands for the glory and majesty of God and the Son of God. Crowns, crosses, doves, stars, and butterflies are a few examples of Chrismons.

The EIGHT POINTED STAR is a symbol of the world. This symbolism is enhanced by the golden orbs, also symbols of the world. This symbol reminds us that Christ came to save the world.

The CROWN symbolizes The Kingship of our Lord; His victory over sin and death; His place of honor at the right hand of God the Father.

The FISH AND BREAD remind us of the breakfast on the beach to which Jesus called his disciples following the resurrection. Also, Jesus fed the multitudes with loaves and fishes.

The CELTIC CROSS is a cross used by the Christians of England for many years. The orb in the center represents the Rising Sun, representative of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who rose from the dead. The arms of the cross are rays of light shining forth from the sun. This reminds us that Christ is the Light of the world.

The IXTHUS is the Greek word for fish. This is an acrostic for the Greek words meaning Jesus Christ, God's Son, Savior.

The IOTA CHI, or CIPHER symbolize the first letters of our Lord's title, Christ, and His name, Jesus. Placing a circle around it symbolizes the eternal nature of the Son of Man.

The "X" and "P" is the Greek letter "CHI" and "RHO" superimposed. They are the first two letters in the name "Christ" spelled in Greek (Xpistos). The "A" and upside down "U" are the Greek letters, "Alpha" and "Omega", the first and the last, the Beginning and the End."

The IOTA, ETA, SIGMA are the first three letters in the Greek word for Jesus. These letters on the cross remind us that Jesus died for us on the cross.

The LATIN CROSS WITH ALPHA AND OMEGA reminds us that Jesus is the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, who died on the cross for us.

The TRIUMPHANT CHURCH symbolizes the world (as seen by the latitude and longitude lines) with the cross on top. It reminds us that Christ is triumphant over the challenges presented by living in the world.

During the week of Tuesday, January 1st and Thursday, January 3rd, Ernie Lombard will be away for vacation. Additionally, on Tuesday, January 8th, he plans to attend the quarterly meeting of the South Carolina Faith Community Nurses Association. Therefore, there will be no Parish Nurse during that time. He will, however, be available in the church office on Thursday, January 10th, from 9 a.m. until noon. After that time, normal office hours of 9 a.m. until noon, each Tuesday, will resume. Please feel free to use this time to call him with a question or concern(s) or drop by his office for a visit.

As the temperatures drop, and the hours of daylight diminish, it is my hope that you feel the warmth of family, friends and God's love during this Christmas season. Wherever you may be, and especially if you may be traveling, I pray for your safety and protection. Thank you for allowing me the privilege of being your Parish Nurse. Ernie

What is the Christmas Joy Offering?

A Presbyterian tradition for almost 70 years, the Christmas Joy Offering is one of the four special offerings designated by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to provide congregations direct ways of supporting specific causes that help those in need.

The receipts from the offering are distributed equally to the Board of Pensions for supplemental retirement and medical assistance for former clergy, missionaries, church workers and their families, and to the Racial Ethnic Schools and Colleges supported by the Presbyterian Church to be used for scholarships and basic costs.

Please consider these needs as you prepare your Joy Gift. These offerings will be received during the December 23rd services.

Sergeant McGowan of the County Sheriff Department gives great tips on being safe

It happened again. The other day, a man stopped by the church and asked about the hours of the Service Fund. When I told him the hours, he said that he works during those times. He said that he was wanting to give them back what they gave him. He told me that if it wasn't for the OPSF, he would not have been able to get his great job. He handed me what the Service Fund gave him to pay his electric bill and expressed a very deep thank you.

Dear Seneca Presbyterian Church,

On behalf of the Charleston Baptist Association and our International Seafarer Ministry, I want to thank you for the 72 caps you made for our ministry. They will be given to seafarers from all over the world during this Christmas season. We have begun giving away the caps (5460 so far) and will continue through mid-January. The seafarers come from countries such as the Philippines, Ukraine, Russia, China, India, Indonesia, and 100+ others. Charleston is one of the larger container ports in the United States, and we are able to touch many lives in the seafarer industry.

Thank you again for your hard work in making the caps and your partnership in the seafarer ministry. Without the support of many individuals, churches, and associations like you, we would not be able to give each sailor a Christmas gift and tract in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Please let everyone involved in the cap-making know of my deep gratitude.

In His love,

Christopher Dale

The Well

October's Well was buzzing with excitement as we started discussing our plans for our November retreat with clients. We spent the evening over dinner talking about updates and answering questions as we enjoyed an amazing dish from Carolyn. We are so incredibly blessed to have her support and her wonderful meals always set the stage for great fellowship.

After dinner, we gathered around to talk about one of the last chapters of The Traveler's Gift. We had plans to finish the book during our retreat in November, so this would be our last Well focused on the book. It turned out to be the perfect chapter to end our Thursday night discussions. In this chapter we focused on forgiveness. We first talked a lot about forgiving others. As the book described, "by the simple act of granting forgiveness, I release the demons of the past". This was such a huge revelation for our clients and everyone who joined us for the conversation. We all shared moments we had been wronged, and when forgiveness set us free of that. However, what really hit home was when we talked about forgiving ourselves. We really got to share in our pain, and help each other heal by opening up about the difficulty to grant yourself grace. I left the Well feeling invigorated and so connected, which reminded me of how blessed we are to share this space and have this opportunity to gather.

As for the kids, the third Thursday is a highly anticipated day of the month because it is shopping day! We love watching them walk around the Ripple store, eyes full of wonder as they pick out their monthly treats. One little girl even saved up for months to purchase a bungee cord chair, and her excitement was palpable. After shopping, the youth had their monthly group discussion with the organization YMO. Finally, the elementary kids got the opportunity to enjoy the last bit of warmth and expend some energy playing outside.

~Thank you for your generosity sharing your space. We are so grateful that the kids have a fun, safe environment to play and learn.

It's that time of year again when we have an opportunity to express our appreciation to the staff at Seneca Presbyterian Church for their dedication. This year is especially important because they have worked extra hard since our minister retired. If you wish to contribute to the staff's Christmas gift, make a check out to Seneca Presbyterian Church and indicate "Staff Christmas Gift" on the check. The deadline is Sunday, December 9, 2018. Merry Christmas!

The 2019 Flower Calendar notebook is located on the table across from the church office. If you would like to provide flowers for the sanctuary during 2019, please sign on the chosen date. Please remember, instead of fresh flowers you can make a donation to your favorite fund or charity. If you make any changes in the book, please let the office know about it.

A big "thank you" to Gary and Judy Whitehead who donated coffee from Cafe Justo to be used in the kitchen in Pastors Hall. They not only supported the mission project in a beautiful way but also added to the delicious meals that are served so often from our kitchen. Thank you!

As we enter the winter months, here's a reminder for Sundays with snow. Check WYFF for closing information. We will post our information at that station ONLY. We will also post any changes on the web site, so you can check www.sprez.org. We try to make those decisions by Saturday evening, if possible. And let's be grateful for the faithful volunteers who will shovel snow and clear pathways at the church for the rest of us!
