NEWS

WEEKLY PRAISE:

Last Saturday, members and non members of our church partnered with Feed the Hunger to pack meals for families in Haiti. With great teamwork, we were able to pack over 50,000 meals in four hours. These meals included dehydrated vegetables, soy, vitamins, and rice. The consumption of this type of meal allows Haitians to receive the protein and nutrients their bodies need. This pack-a-thon couldn't have been scheduled at a more convenient time. Just days before, Hurricane Matthew significantly impacted Haiti as well as the Bahamas. Therefore, not only will these meals be delivered to Haiti, some will be delivered to the Bahamas to help hurricane victims. Continue to pray for everyone affected by the recent hurricane as well as the teams delivering the meals to help fill a physical and spiritual hunger.

The staff and members of FBCLG are rejoicing with Shelby Hughes and her family as she expressed her faith through baptism last Sunday.

Kids Choir

The Kids Choir Team would like to thank everyone who has volunteered to help sew costumes for this year's Christmas program.

Operation Christmas Child

(We are encouraging the use of the OCC boxes but it is not mandatory.)
- There will be a packing party in November with food, prayer, and fun! The date will be announced soon.
- Dedication Sunday is November 13, 2016. Please have your boxes turned in by this date.
