“Come and See What Happens When Love Leads”

Scripture: John 21:1-14

<sup>7</sup> Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Galilee. It happened this way: <sup>2</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas (also known as Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. <sup>3</sup> “I’m going out to fish,” Simon Peter told them, and they said, “We’ll go with you.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?”

“No,” they answered.

<sup>6</sup> He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.” When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

<sup>7</sup> Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord!” As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, “It is the Lord,” he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. <sup>8</sup> The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards. <sup>9</sup> When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you have just caught.” <sup>11</sup> So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. <sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup> Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. <sup>14</sup> This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Summary: “Come and See What Happens When Love Leads” (John 21:1–14) shows how Jesus meets His disciples in their failure and uncertainty, not with condemnation but with love. When the disciples return to fishing and catch nothing, Jesus comes to them, guiding them to abundance through simple obedience and inviting them into restoration over a shared meal. This passage reveals that when love leads, Jesus meets us where we are, our obedience opens the door to His provision, and our failures become opportunities for renewal.

Ultimately, it reminds us that Christ’s love draws us back, restores us, and leads us forward..

Discussion Questions:

1. Where do you see yourself in this story—waiting, struggling, or being restored?
2. What is one area where God is asking you to trust and obey, even when it doesn’t make sense?
3. How have you experienced God’s love meeting you in a place of failure or discouragement?
