"“A Revelation of Jesus”"

Scripture: Revelation 1:1-3

The revelation from Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, ² who testifies to everything he saw—that is, the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. ³ Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

Summary: Revelation 1:1–3 introduces the book as God’s unveiling of Jesus Christ and His ultimate victory. God gave this revelation to Jesus, who communicated it through an angel to the apostle John so that God’s people could know His purposes. Revelation 1 introduces Jesus as more than a religious teacher: He is presented as the One who loves people, gave His life for them, rose from the dead, rules over history, and will ultimately return. Revelation begins by inviting us not simply to understand future events, but to encounter the person at the center of them—Jesus.

Discussion Questions:

1. After reading Revelation 1, what stands out to you most about the way Jesus is described?
2. If what Revelation 1 says about Jesus is true, what difference do you think that could make in your life?
3. What questions or doubts does this chapter make you want to ask about Jesus or Christianity?
