9:30am Worship Center

A large, dark, three-dimensional cross stands prominently against a dramatic, cloudy sky. The cross is constructed from thick, rectangular beams, giving it a substantial, almost monumental appearance. The sky is filled with textured, grey clouds, creating a somber and contemplative atmosphere. The lighting is soft, highlighting the edges of the cross and the cloud formations.

Ecclesiastes

Everything Is Meaningless

1 The words of the Teacher, ^{son of Da-}vid, king in Jerusalem:
2 "Meaningless! Meaningless!"
3 ^{sa}ith the Teacher,
4 "Utter meaninglessness!
5 Everything is meaningless."
6 What does man gain from all his labor
7 at which he toils under the sun?
8 Generations come, and generations go,
9 but the earth remains forever.
10 The sun rises and then sets,
11 and hurries back to its place,
12 The wind blows to the south
13 and turns to the north;
14 round and round it goes,
15 never returning on its course.
16 All streams flow into the sea,
17 yet the sea is never full.
18 To the place the streams come from,
19 there they return again
20 and swirl about there,
21 but nothing is gained.

Wisdom Is Meaningless

1 ^{Jerusalem}, the Teacher, was king
2 in Judah.
3 "I devoted myself to explore by wisdom all that is 4 done under the sun; all that
5 my eyes saw, I have seen,
6 and behold, all is meaningless,
7 a chasing after the wind,
8 and striving to grasp
9 what is like a shadow,
10 which never can be
11 grasped."
12 I thought I had 13 grown and become
14 wise, but I was
15 far from wisdom and
16 knowledge.
17 I said, "I will become
18 great and become rich,
19 and I will find wisdom."
20 Yet, this too, is a chasing af-
21 ter the wind,
22 and striving to grasp
23 what is like a shadow,
24 which never can be
25 grasped.
