CLASSIFICATION: Full time – Paid, must develop Ministry Partners for salary, reimbursements for ministry and administrative expenses and retirement.
REPORTS TO: Field or Regional Director

GENERAL STATEMENT OF JOB FUNCTION AND OBJECTIVES

The full-time BEE World Facilitator serves with a team to facilitate the training of Indigenous Christian leaders in international locations, using BEE World curriculum through small-group interactive methods and a model of knowing, being and doing. The end objective is the building of a self-sustaining, indigenous biblical education/discipleship ministry through the multiplication of servant leaders. The full-time facilitator reports to a Country Director, travels a minimum of four times a year, for a minimum commitment of three years to facilitate training seminars internationally and serves BEE World in other capacities according to their gifts and abilities as requested.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Actively serve as a part of the whole team of BEE World staff and missionaries.
- Develop and maintain a support team for personal and ministry related financial needs, prayer, and encouragement.
- Prepare and facilitate BEE World curriculum in English and be able to work through interpreters when necessary.
- Effectively serve cross-culturally through on-going education and appreciation of cultures specific to ministry locations.
- Work closely with the Country Director, other facilitators, Indigenous leaders and BEE World leadership in the development and execution of ministry plans.
- Make a minimum of four ministry trips annually. Ministry trips are generally two weeks long.
- Within two weeks after each trip, submit a ministry trip report using the BEE World trip report template. A verbal trip report is also encouraged at a Thursday prayer meeting within one month of returning.
- Be available for facilitating and advocating for BEE World in U.S.A. churches (BEE-USA).
- Fulfill other duties and responsibilities as requested in order to participate in the execution of BEE World's Strategic Plan and Mission.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- Relocate to live near Colorado Springs and work from the BEE World office, unless approval is requested and granted to live elsewhere.
- Maintain timely and healthy communication with country team, supervisor and other BEE World staff and leaders.
- Participate in Thursday prayer meetings, semi-annual staff meetings and other meetings, conferences and training events as requested. For those living outside of the Colorado Springs area, participation via Zoom is an alternative for participating in person.
- Discuss and obtain supervisor approval before pursuing a change in fields or teams.
- Annually affirm you have read, agree, and sign the acknowledgements and agreements to include:
  - General Policies Manual and Travel and Expense Report Manual
  - Doctrinal Statement Policy and General Doctrinal Statement Agreement
  - Conflict Resolution Policy
  - International Trip Liability Release Agreement

- Be in a growing personal relationship with Jesus Christ, including being His faithful witness and a consistent involvement in a local church.
- Demonstrate a mature practicing knowledge of the Bible and the ability to communicate biblical truth clearly.
- Maintain a gracious, Christ-like attitude in dealing with people within and outside of BEE World.
- Reflect a Godly maturity in character, relationships and stewardship of gifts and resources.
- Work well with others as demonstrated through a teachable spirit and a servant's attitude.
- Be self-disciplined to fulfill duties and responsibilities.
- Adapt easily to changing situations.
- In situations where doctrinal differences may exist, facilitate BEE World curriculum while maintaining BEE World doctrinal preferences as stated in the Comprehensive Doctrinal Statement.

EDUCATION, TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE

- Biblical training through a local church, college, seminary or equivalent, and a practicing knowledge of the Scriptures.
- Have a minimum of five years of ministry experience or equivalent.
- Have experience and be committed to small group discipleship using the Scriptures and an interactive (Socratic) method of teaching.
- Successfully complete and pass BEE World's Basic Facilitator Training course.
- Prepare, plan, fund, and travel on a Field Training facilitation trip with a BEE World Facilitator Mentor and facilitate at least two lessons and receive a positive evaluation by the Mentor.
