2018/2019 Grading Scale

As we begin our 155th school year, it is important that all students and parents are fully aware of the grading scales used for this school year, especially as they relate to specific classes. Please know that our grading scale mirrors our local high school grading scales. Questions may be directed to classroom teachers or our school office. Thank you for being a part of the SPLS family!

Primary Grading Scale

A+	100 – 97.5%	[12]
A	97.4 – 92.6%	[11]
A-	92.5 – 90.0%	[10]
B+	89.9 – 87.5%	[9]

Secondary Grading Scale

E: Excellent	100 – 90%
S: Satisfactory	89.9 – 75%
N: Needs Improvement	74.9 – 65%
U: Unsatisfactory	64.9% and Below

Discipleship

All students in grades 5-8 will receive a Discipleship grade based upon our Primary Grading Scale. Students in grades K-4 will receive a Discipleship grade based upon our Secondary Grading Scale.

Memory Work

K-1st grade students will receive a Memory Work grade based upon our Secondary Grading Scale. 2-8th grade students will receive a Memory grade based upon our Primary Grading Scale. For GPA purposes for our 5-8th grade students, Memory Work will count 20% of a full grade. For example, Math will receive a 100% grade weighting toward total GPA, while Memory Work will only receive a 20% grade weighting toward total GPA.

Specials

K-4th grade students will receive Specials grades based upon our Secondary Grading Scale. 5-8th grade students will receive Specials grades based upon our Primary Grading Scale. For GPA purposes for our 5-8th grade students, Specials will count 20% of a full grade for each day that the Special meets per week. For example, if a student has Art two days per week, then Art is weighted at 40% of a full grade.

Church Attendance

Church Attendance is not a graded subject. We apologize for any confusion on this.
