St. Peter's Lutheran Discipleship Opportunities

"You give them something to eat!" Mark 6:37

Sundays
9:30-10:30 am
January 9-March 6

Surviving an Empty Nest

George Denholm, Trish Kelly

Room 5108

Life changes when your children grow up and leave home. In this class, we will support each other as we adjust to being parents of adults as well as adjusting to life after the kids are gone. This is a great option for parents who will soon launch kids into adulthood, who have experienced children leaving home, or who want to prepare for the future.

Bible Investigation Class

Pastor Mark Teike

Room 2164

This will be the last opportunity to participate in Pastor Teike's Bible Investigation Class. It is open to those who are long-time members, not so long-time members, as well as those who would like to make St. Peter's their church home. This class will examine the basic teachings of the scriptures and what it means to be a follower of Jesus. It is a good introduction to the faith for those who are new and a good review for those who are not so new.

The Gospel of Mark

Pastor John Cordrey

Old Gym

Each Gospel gives us a unique glimpse into the person of Jesus. The Gospel of Mark, with its fast-paced narrative and intense scenes of conflict, paint a picture of Jesus that we often don't consider. Come and discover a different side of Jesus as we explore the Gospel of Mark.

Why Do You Hate Your Neighbor?

Vicar James Bozarth

Room 5110

Sometimes we struggle to Fear, Love, and Trust God above all things. Equip yourself to identify when your Fear, Love, or Trust for God is under attack so that you might better love your neighbor.

The Chosen – Season 2

Gene Ernst, Ed Tower

India Conference - Room 2161

The dramatic portrayal of Scripture continues – gather to watch segments of the acclaimed series and discuss what we can learn from it.

Bible Study for Youth & Young Adults

Matt Scholl

Room 5119

We will develop a life-long love for God as we learn about the Bible, learn to listen to the Holy Spirit through the Bible, and grow in demonstrating the Heart of a Disciple. Please bring a physical Bible and a notebook.
