

Welcome, guests!

We're glad you're worshipping with us today! We pray the time you spend here is uplifting. Please join us again! While here you are invited to:

- ... Complete an attendance card located in the pocket of the pew in front of you, it will be collected by an usher during the service.
- ... Come join us in the cafeteria from 9-9:30am on Sundays for donuts, coffee and fellowship.
- ... Connect with a St. Peter's Lutheran volunteer at the Information Center in the narthex for information on Bible studies and other events.
- ... Celebrate the Lord's Supper with us. Refer to the card in the pocket of the pew in front of you for a summary of our beliefs. If you still have questions, please talk with a pastor. For those with special needs, we offer white grape juice and gluten-free wafers.

We welcome children in worship. A staffed nursery is available in the hallway south of the narthex (for infants to 4-year-olds) during weekend worship services. A cry room is on the right before entering the sanctuary where you can take children and still enjoy worship. Kids Church is available (for 4yrs-kindergarten and children with special needs) during the 10:45am service.

Upcoming Bible Classes

Adult Bible Classes March 31–May 19 (no class on Easter)

Loaded Words Deaconess Intern Michele Doel, room 5108

There are tough-to-chew words we often use in the church, but within each of these “loaded words” are some of the most beautiful, gracious truths that words can convey. We will look at the baggage and misuse of words like sin, judgment and repent to then open up the wisdom of these words in a whole new way.

#HowtoHaveaHealthierMarriage Gina & Patrick Galligar, rm. 5119

Can you imagine what life would be like if your spouse not only listened, but understood what you were sharing with them? Can you picture how much different your home life would be if you and your spouse were on the same team when it comes to raising your kids? Seven ideas will be presented to make your marriage healthier right NOW!!!

Christ-Centered Parenting Karen Clark, room to be decided

Parenting never ends, it just changes. Parents in every age group—preschool through young adults—sense the need and urgency to discuss the complex cultural issues of our day with their kids from a Gospel perspective.

There are four Gospels. Three have much in common—then there’s John. Come join the discussion to discover the differences and understand why God did this.

The Chronicles of the Apostles continues with Pastor Chad Foster, Gymnasium

Using the book of Acts as a skeleton, we will study Jewish sources, Church fathers, and Christian history to reveal the often-untold story of the disciples and their disciples all the way into the second century. Chronicles of the Apostles goes beyond the book Acts to follow the apostles around the world and tells the story of our Hebraic roots.
