

PRESS RELEASE FOR JANUARY 19, 2021

Community Foundation Welcomes New Directors

The Community Foundation of Pulaski County (CFPC) has announced the addition of four new members to its Board of Directors in 2021.

“Each of these individuals is a long-time resident of Pulaski County,” said Wendy Rose, Executive Director of CFPC. “They believe in the power of generosity as a means of improving our community. They are committed to the mission of the Community Foundation and its role in building permanent endowment funds, creating legacies and collaborating on important issues.”

New members include: Paul Gilsinger, part owner of GreenMark Equipment and Winamac store lead; Jill Kasten, Principal Systems Engineer for Itron; Rhonda Lower, Branch Manager of First Federal Savings Bank in Winamac; and John Sass, Operations Manager for Standard Industrial.

“These four new directors bring unique perspectives and a range of skills to the Community Foundation Board,” said Vicki Overmyer, Board President. “We are grateful that they have chosen to serve our community in this capacity and we look forward to their leadership.”

2021 CFPC Board Officers are: President Vicki Overmyer, Vice-President Kaye Beall, Treasurer Gregg Malott, and Secretary Barb Schultz. Continuing CFPC directors are: Pam Burger, Missy Culp, Kurt Dickey, Julie Hanus, Karen Jones, Robert Klitzman, Ron Kruger, Leslie Link, Darlene Mellon, and Shane Pilarski.

Rose added that the Community Foundation is looking forward to a productive New Year and new opportunities for the community through its forward-thinking leadership initiative.
