- g. In the event there are changes to your advisor or student that was elected, the school administration and TASC Executive Board will make a decision on the next steps.

TASC General Campaigning and Election Rules

1. Campaigning must be fair, respectable, and considerate of others. There are to be no hidden meanings, innuendoes, and no material inappropriate for a leadership conference.
2. There will be a MANDATORY Candidates' Meeting the afternoon of the first day of convention (March 27th at 3:30 PM EST) to discuss campaigning guidelines. The candidate and advisor must be present. If the candidate and advisor are not BOTH present, the candidate will not be able to campaign until they have both met with the current vice president and advisor. Also, a copy of campaign speeches must be turned in at the meeting.
3. NO campaigning is allowed prior to the Candidate's Meeting. This includes the wearing of T-shirts, passing out and/or posting campaign materials, mass mailing, calling, networking, or other technological uses of campaign material prior to convention. No posting on social media prior to the zoom candidate meeting.
4. There is to be no campaigning in the room where the General Sessions are held.
5. DO NOT:
  - a. Tamper with or destroy other candidate's paraphernalia
  - b. Pass out things that can be thrown (balls, Frisbees, etc.)
  - c. Use laser pointers
  - d. Distribute or use any item designed exclusively to make noise (whistles, musical instruments, etc.)
  - e. Use or distribute stickers, labels, or other adhesive materials
6. Signs:
  - a. No sign limit (number or size). Placement is on a first come, first serve basis. A sign that is covering other signs will be taken down.
  - b. Only painter's tape can be used to hang signs.
  - c. Do NOT hang signs on glass or columns.
  - d. You may have one larger banner, and you are not limited to signs that can be hung on walls. You may make flyers, or displays that can be set on the floor.
7. Individually wrapped candy handouts are welcome. So are other small items. Due to nut allergies, do not bring any candy that contains nuts.
8. Nomination and Campaign Speeches:
  - a. All candidates running for President, Vice President, and Secretary Host Elect must be nominated by a student from another school. No member of the current TASC executive board may nominate a candidate. This speech must not exceed one minute. Area representatives do not have to be nominated.
  - b. Campaign speeches by candidates for President, Vice President, and Secretary Host Elect may not exceed five minutes. Speeches by candidates for Area Representatives may not exceed three minutes.
  - c. All candidates must turn in a FINALIZED copy of their speech during the candidates' meeting. For speeches that will be given during the General Session, these copies will be placed on the podium for each candidate to use during their speech. Candidates may use note cards, but a final copy of the speech must still be turned in.
  - d. No skits, media, or props will be allowed during the speech. This includes the candidates' dress on stage, posters, or any other distracting materials.

e. Both nominators and candidates MUST wear business or dress attire each time they are on stage. No shorts, T-shirts, or denim. Skirts or dresses must hit below the back of the knee. (You will not be allowed on stage unless you meet the wardrobe requirements.) Plan in advance to bring ample wardrobe for stage appearances. If you have a legitimate reason that prevents you from adhering to the dress code, please have your advisor contact Traci Spain (traci.spain@gmsdk12.org)

Questionable campaigning may result in the disqualification of the candidate(s) in question. If a situation was to occur, it would be presented to the Executive Board who will make a final decision. There will be no appeals to this decision.

If there are no nominees for a state executive office, the office will be vacant. The TASC executive committee has the authority to appoint a school to the office or assign the duties of the office to other schools.

Please make note of the following dates.

Board Meeting dates:

July 18-19, 2026 (Sat. 1:00 p.m. until Sun. 11:00 a.m.)

January 16 - 17, 2027 (Sat. - Winter Refresher and Meeting, Sun - Meeting)

Morning of the first day of the 2027 State Convention

I have read and understand all of the General Campaigning and Election Rules. I am aware that if I violate any of these rules it may result in suspended campaigning or disqualification from the election. I have also read and understand all of the duties of the office I am running. I am aware that, if elected to office, I must carry out all of my duties as stated in the TASC bylaws. If I am unable to accomplish this, I understand that it may result in my removal from office.
