

HRBC Membership Covenant

I will devote myself to the things of God: to grow in Christ (Discipleship); to fellowship with others in this body; to attend the ordinances of the church (Lord's Supper and Baptism); to prayer; to magnifying Christ in all that I do.

I will commit myself to the unity of this Church: refusing to gossip; acting in love toward other members; working with others for the purpose and mission of the church; doing my best to support and endorse other ministries in the church; longing to keep God as the center of all things.

I will seek to serve in ministry through Hope Reformed Baptist Church: seek to be committed to the fellowship; seeking to find just where I can best serve for the glory of God; seek ways to help and endorse all the ministries of the church; seeking to minister to my family first, my church second, and my community and world third.

I will faithfully give myself to the movement of God and the cause of Christ: tithe and give joyfully as God leads me; seek to make Him known to others; count the cost of following Christ and give up whatever is necessary to enjoy Him more fully.

I will respect and serve with the leadership of the church: remain teachable; welcome accountability and submit to church discipline; seek to support the leadership of the church; pray for the leadership of the church.
