LENT SERIES SPIRITUAL + HABITS + FEBRUARY 20 - MARCH 21

Every Lent at Galilee we offer a teaching series designed to spur you toward deeper growth and trust in God. This Lent we'll explore five spiritual habits and show you how to use them: Fasting, Lectio Divina, Contemplation, Simplicity and Confession.

We will offer two talk times -- one on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-7:30pm in Tucker Hall or during our Wednesday Lenten lunches at noon. We will offer childcare during the evening only.

After the Lent talk, you will be able to discuss deeper on the topic with your table.

We encourage you to attend this Lenten series! If you are unable and would like to start a small group in your home, the talks will also be on Galilee's Facebook page.

The Collect

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Old Testament: 2 Kings 2:1-12

When the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent." Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here; for the Lord has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know; be silent." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

Psalm 50:1-6

¹ The Lord, the God of gods, has spoken; * he has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

² Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, * God reveals himself in glory.

³ Our God will come and will not keep silence; * before him there is a consuming flame, and round about him a raging storm.

⁴ He calls the heavens and the earth from above * to witness the judgment of his people.

⁵ "Gather before me my loyal followers, * those who have made a covenant with me and sealed it with sacrifice."

⁶ Let the heavens declare the rightness of his cause; * for God himself is judge.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 4:3-6

Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

The Gospel: Mark 9:2-9

Celeb The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!" Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

"SPIRITUAL HABITS" COMING IN LENT:

We will offer two talks -- on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-7:30pm in Tucker Hall or during our Wednesday Lenten lunches at noon.

Over the centuries, the spiritual giants of Christianity have practiced a variety of "spiritual habits" that keep them focused on God, and growing in their faith. During Lent at Galilee, we'll explore 5 spiritual habits and show you how to use them: Fasting, Lectio Divina, Contemplation, Simplicity and Confession.

FROM THE LIBRARY

The Library is launching a new book club for 2018. The plan is to meet once a month and communicate as often as needed online as we read a book of mutual interest and enlightenment. We plan to be up and rolling before Lent, so shoot us an email if you might benefit from some interesting discourse in 2018: library@galileechurch.net.
