CHURCH

Fourth Sunday in Lent

March 11, 2018 | 11:15am

The Galilee Advocates for Mental Health (GAMH) invites you to attend the City of Virginia Beach Human Rights Commission 24th Annual Awards Ceremony and Dinner: Thursday, April 5 th 7:00 p.m at the Virginia Beach Convention Center. We will celebrate our GAMH Chair Kathleen Wakefield as well as Barbara Unkle, Chair of the Board of Directors at Hospice House of South Hampton Roads! Both are recognized for their human rights contributions to the area.

Kathy Wakefield has spent seventeen years educating teenagers and young adults about depression and suicide. Following the 2001 devastating suicide of her son, Jake, Kathy created the I Need A Lighthouse Foundation to honor him by helping others. As a 33-year high school teacher, she was acutely aware of the ever changing moods and struggles of teenagers. Through education, Kathy knew she could connect with those suffering silently and hopefully improve their mental well-being. Kathy has made it her life's mission to reach as many young people - each year she talks to all 9th graders attending the eleven public high schools in Virginia Beach -- 4400 students per year!

Barbara Unkle chairs the Hospice House of South Hampton Roads, Inc., a newly incorporated 501c3 private nonprofit organization in Virginia Beach. Their mission is to build a 12 bed residential hospice facility which will meet the end of life care needs for patients and their families in our community. Envisioned is a facility which will provide high quality medical care to assure that patients are as comfortable as possible and families experience the kind of emotional support they need.

The Virginia Beach Human Rights Commission Awards honor noteworthy individuals and groups who have significantly aided in the understanding of cultural diversity, social awareness, equal opportunity, and human rights in our community.

Old Testament: 2 Samuel 7:1-16

Now when the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, "See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent." Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you." But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings. But I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you. Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me; your throne shall be established forever.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

Psalm 107

Give thanks to the Lord, whose mercy endures for ever.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *
and his mercy endures for ever.

Let all those whom the LORD has redeemed proclaim *
that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

He gathered them out of the lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

Give thanks to the Lord, whose mercy endures for ever.

Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; *
they were afflicted because of their sins.

They abhorred all manner of food *
and drew near to death's door.

Give thanks to the Lord, whose mercy endures for ever.

Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, *
and he delivered them from their distress.
He sent forth his word and healed them *
and saved them from the grave.

Give thanks to the Lord, whose mercy endures for ever.

Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.

Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and tell of his acts with shouts of joy.

Give thanks to the Lord, whose mercy endures for ever.

The Epistle: Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-- by grace you have been saved-- and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God-- not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God!

The Gospel: John 3:14-21

Celeb The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. "Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

"SPIRITUAL HABITS"

LENT STUDY

We will offer two talks -- on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-7:30pm in Tucker Hall or during our Wednesday Lenten lunches at noon. Childcare will be provided on Tuesday evenings.

Over the centuries, the spiritual giants of Christianity have practiced a variety of "spiritual habits" that keep them focused on God, and growing in their faith. This week, we'll explore the habit of Confession.
