Small Group Discussion Questions — Integrity

1. What comes to mind when you hear the word integrity? How would you describe a person who has it?

2. Proverbs 10:9 says that the person who walks in integrity walks securely, but the one who makes crooked paths will be found out. Why does integrity bring security? Where are you tempted to present yourself differently than you really are?

3. Why isn't it enough to simply be sincere or follow your own convictions? What does it look like to let God's Word shape the direction of your life?

4. Where are you most tempted to justify a compromise because it seems practical, profitable, or convenient? What might following God's way cost you?

5. What are some ordinary situations—in your work, home, relationships, or finances—where integrity means actively doing what is right? Who is affected by the choices you make?

6. We've described integrity as every part of your life pointing in the right direction. Read Romans 5:6–10, 2 Corinthians 5:21, and Titus 2:11-14. Why do we need Jesus not just as an example of integrity, but as our Savior? What might it look like this week to bring one area of your life into alignment with him?
