

Pentecost 2 Sunday Devotional 2020

Treasured Possessions

Did you see the news this week, that someone found the Treasure Chest that was hidden my Forrest Fenn in the Rocky Mountains a decade ago? Yes indeed, the mystery seems to have been solved.

Forrest Fenn, a New Mexico Art dealer, placed a 13th century Romanesque bronze chest, hidden between 2009-2010 with an estimated $2million of gold, jewelry, and gems. Tucked somewhere north of Santa Fe, deep into the mountains. The treasure has apparently been found...we will see what happens next.

Exodus 19:5 says, “you shall be my treasured possession.” God calls out his treasured possession in the people of the promise, and as such raises up the value of the relationship that God has established with the people of the Exodus.

We are all treasured possessions in the sight of God, and God calls into a special relationship, that calls for our compassion, and desire, and openness to seeing the beauty of the creation and the crown of that creation.