VALENTINE CARE PACKAGES
Sent to College Students & Service Men/Women

We are preparing to send out our annual Valentine Care Packages for college students and service men and women. We don't want to miss anyone that might fit either of these categories and we want to be sure to have their current address. Please contact the church office (225.7004 or office@richlandchurch.org) with the most recent address for any college students and/or servicemen/women that are a part of your immediate family. Please be watching for more information on how you might help to bless those who are far from home this winter!
