CHIMING OF THE HOUR
WELCOME
GREETING TIME
RESPONSIVE LITANY		Lay Reader & Congregation

Leader: We gather as people looking for the star, a sign that God is at work in the world.

All: God, help us find your glory.

Leader: We gather as people listening for the whispers of the Spirit, hints of the good news in the least likely places.

All: God, help us notice your glory.

Leader: We gather as people yearning for Love's presence, the assurance that we are not alone and Love will have the last word.

All: God, help us encounter your glory.

Leader: On this Epiphany Sunday, may the Light of Love shine among us, revealing divine glory through neighbors known and unknown, vulnerable children, and unexpected gifts.

All: God, reveal to us anew the glory of your expansive Love that gathers us together and sustains us in loving service to one another and all creation. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING 12: THE EPIPHANY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God,

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, Lord our God, Creator and Sovereign of the universe, our light and our salvation.

Before the mountains were brought forth or you had formed the earth, from everlasting to everlasting you alone are God.

Therefore, with your people in all ages and the whole company of heaven, we join in the song of unending praise, singing (saying):

Holy, holy, holy, Lord
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Truly holy are you, Father. In the fullness of time you revealed yourself in your blessed Son Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Through him we are saved and baptized into your service.

You sent a star to guide wise men to where the Christ was born; and your signs and witnesses, in every age and through all the world, have led persons from far distances to him.

In his baptism and in his table fellowship he identified with sinners. He preached good news to the poor, proclaimed release to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, set free the oppressed, and announced that the time had come when you would save your people.

On the night his disciples betrayed and deserted him he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; for this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection you gave birth to your Church. His presence has continued with his people, as they have been baptized into him, and in the breaking of bread and sharing of the cup, in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth.

Therefore, in remembrance of all your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we, who in past years have been baptized into the death and resurrection of Christ, now offer ourselves to you anew, in union with Christ's sacrifice for us, [and in renewal of our baptismal vows,] as a living and holy surrender of ourselves.

Send the power of your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts, that in the breaking of this bread and the drinking of this wine we may know the presence of the living Christ; be one body in him, cleansed by his blood; and look forward to his coming in final victory.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen.
