WORDS OF WELCOME

The Pastor

♦ CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Leader: Jesus went up the mountain, sat down, and began to teach.

People: He did not begin with commands, but with blessing.

Leader: Blessed are the poor in spirit, those who mourn, those who long for justice and peace.

People: God sees what the world overlooks.

Leader: Blessed are the merciful, the peacemakers, the ones who keep showing up with honest hearts.

People: God's kingdom is already drawing near.

Leader: Come, not because you have it all together, but because God's grace is already leaning toward you.

All: Let us worship the God who names us blessed.

♦ OPENING HYMN # 407

“Close to Thee”

♦ PRAYER OF PRAISE AND ADORATION

Holy and gracious God, we praise you not because we are strong, but because you are faithful. You are the One who sees us as we are—before we are polished, before we are certain, before we are put back together. We adore you for your surprising mercy, for your nearness to the grieving, for your promise to those who hunger for justice. You are the God who does not wait for perfection but speaks blessing into fragile lives. You gather the overlooked, you strengthen the gentle, you entrust your future to peacemakers. Receive our praise this day—not as a performance, but as a grateful response to a love that has already found us. We worship you, O God, who names us blessed and calls us into your life-giving way. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Welcome!

We are a Welcoming and Reconciling congregation. Rooted in God's love, we affirm the dignity and worth of every person and seek to live Christ's call to compassion, justice, healing, and wholeness. We welcome people of all races, ages, genders, sexual orientations, gender identities and expressions, nationalities, abilities, family structures, and social or economic backgrounds into the full life and leadership of the church. We believe we can love alike even when we do not think alike, and we invite all to share in worship, ministry, fellowship, and the sacraments as we grow together in faith and love.

Who We Are . . .

We are a church family that welcomes all, regardless of political views or Christian perspectives, because we belong to the one family of God. Though we may not always agree, we commit to loving, forgiving, honoring our differences, and serving together as we live out the Gospel of God's love revealed in Jesus Christ. Guided by Micah 6:8, we strive to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.
