1 Corinthians 10:14-22, "A Question of Loyalty," May 24, 2026, Kevin Stuhlmann

Main Point: Flee idolatry and religious compromise, which contradict loyalty to the Lord.

1. Read 1 Corinthians 10:14-22. Paul begins, "Therefore…" How does the previous passage lay the groundwork for the discussion here?

2. Verse 14 says, "flee from idolatry." What is conveyed by the word "flee"? Given the idols of our context, what might this look like for us?

3. In what sense are the cup and bread of the Lord's Supper a "participation" in the blood and body of Christ (v.16)?

4. In verse 17, Paul stresses the church as "one body." How should this affect our approach to the Lord's Supper?

5. Look back at 1 Corinthians 8:4-6. From it and 10:19-20, what's a biblical understanding of the nature of idolatry?

6. Why is it proper for God to be "a jealous God"?

7. Why do you think religious pluralism and syncretism have such an appeal? What can we do to guard against these in our own lives?

8. How have you been personally challenged by this passage?

9. What other comments, questions, or personal applications do you have from this passage?
