Suggested Questions for Doxa Church G2 Groups
1 Corinthians 11:2-16, "Men and Women at Worship," June 7, 2026, Kevin Stuhlmann

Main Point: God-glorifying worship joyfully conforms to his ordering of relationships.

1. Read 1 Corinthians 11:2-16. How does verse 3 lay the foundation for the rest of the passage?

2. Given the cultural background Kevin shared, how did a man worshiping with his head covered dishonor his head, that is, Christ (v. 4)?

3. How did a wife worshiping with her head uncovered dishonor her head, that is, her husband (vv. 5-6)?

4. The specific instructions of verses 4-6 are bound to culture. What are the principles we ought to apply in our context? And how can we do so practically?

5. What do verses 7-12 say about the biblical perspective on men, women, and the marriage relationship?

6. Considering verses 13-15 and the cultural background, what implications are there for the church and individual Christians in today's cultural environment?

7. Since the context is public worship, how should the truths of this passage be lived out within the church community? How should they be lived out within marriage? For the latter, see also Ephesians 5:22-33.

8. What other comments, questions, or personal applications do you have from this passage?
