Announcements . . .

This morning we welcome the Schoenhals family, Mark & Sarah and daughters Heidi and Hannah. They are Virginia Mennonite Missions workers in Thailand, home on furlough, and sharing stories about participating in God's mission.

Congratulations to Randy & Alli E. on the birth of their son! Bryce Henry arrived Friday morning weighing 7lbs 6ozs, and 19.5" long.

Next Sunday following the service we will have a carry-in meal. Please bring a soup, salad, bread or dessert to share. If you are able to provide a dish that is made without gluten, dairy or egg, please label it so that those with food allergies may be aware.

Trissels Mennonite Women are making their denim bags as a school kit fundraiser. Each bag is beautifully handmade and will sell for $30. Please let Gloria S. or Karen M. know if you would like a denim bag, so that an exact number can be made for those interested. Checks can be made out to Trissels Mennonite Women, and placed in the "Sewing Circle" mailbox.

VMM Prayer Request: Lift up the ESL students & neighbors of Sarah K. in Harrisonburg who have received the movie Magdalena (similar to the Jesus film). Pray that it will be a way of drawing them to Jesus.

Area Mennonite churches are invited to an Ash Wednesday worship service on March 1, 6:30 pm at Zion Mennonite Church. We will begin the journey of Lent through this time of confession, lament, healing, hope, and worship. An offering will be received for Skekinah, a female vocal ensemble, who will minister through their gift of song.

The Shenandoah Valley Men's Chorus under the direction of Jared S. will be in concert at the Eastern Mennonite High School auditorium on Sunday, Feb 26, at 3 pm. The collected offering will benefit New Creation, a Harrisonburg based non-profit counteracting human trafficking through education and the hope of Christ.

Happy Birthday this week:
