Announcements . . .

This morning we are baptizing Holly C., and receiving both Ed and Holly as members to our congregation.

All are invited to stay for a fellowship meal immediately following the service.

A women's Bible study will begin this Tues. Jan 16, 6:30-8:00pm in the Trissels fellowship hall. For eight weeks we will dig deep into the book of James with Beth Moore an inspiring & energetic teacher. Workbooks will be provided. Come and enjoy fellowship and learning. Feel free to invite your neighbors. Contact Jewel or Kirsten if you have any questions.

Join us next Sunday, Jan 21 from 5-8pm for an evening of knotting comforters at the church; a soup meal provided. This would be a great opportunity to come spend time with our youth.

Contribution envelopes for 2018 are in your mailboxes. If you did not receive a box and would like one, just pick one up - there are extras available at the mailboxes.

The annual Ash Wednesday worship service will be Wed, Feb 14, 6:30pm at Zion Mennonite Church. This is a joint service of Zion, Trissels, Lindale, and Grace.

Join Highland staff and friends on Sat, Feb 17 at EMHS for the Highland Benefit Auction. The auction helps subsidize summer camp tuition and provides scholarships for families with greater need. Contact info@highlandretreat.org if you have something to donate and see www.highlandretreat.org for more details.

Greenmonte Fellowship (a Mennonite congregation near Stuarts Draft) is hosting a weekend conference on Israel, Palestine & The Bible on Feb 9-11. Does the Bible have anything to say to us about how the Church respond to what's happening in Israel, Gaza and the West Bank? What does justice look like for Palestinian refugees? Whose side is God on anyway? Guest speakers: Doug Hershey and Michael Onifer. No charge for event, though offering will be taken. More info at www.greenmonte.com/israel-palestine--the-bible-conference.html.
