Check out the library display window! There you will find several new books and others to add to your summer reading list. The top shelf features some of the library's collection on Billy Graham. The bottom shelf has books for children. More new selections are on the way.

The library committee is in the process of removing books from the shelves. Those recently pulled are on the library table. Help yourself to any you may want. The remainder will go to Booksavers. Any questions talk to Cary or Susan.

With our year's theme of "Moving toward Jesus together" we are sharing with each other things Jesus said or did that strike us. If you would like to share with the congregation something that struck you, talk with a Worship Committee member (Jewel, Rachel M., Marla, Kirsten, Tim I., Harold).
