One Church at a Time

2018

New Ministries in 2018

It is always an exciting time to start a new year and this January has proved to be a great start for 2018. This year will mark a lot of transition and change for me. My first year in London is almost complete and it has been amazing to see all that God has allowed me to do. Over the next few months I will get the chance to transition from helping out the churches I have been with, to moving into a more leadership role. I am so excited to see which doors and churches God is directing the Reeves family and myself to for 2018 and beyond. Our prayer is that by the end of this year we will be in more long term positions at the churches we are serving at.

New Student Ministry

One big prayer for February is for the new student ministry I will be helping get started at a church near my flat. Crockenhill Baptist Church, is a church that I have helped at several times and will be spending most of my Sunday evenings now helping them run their brand new youth service. We will be launching this new youth group the end of February, and I am excited to see what God is going to do with these teens. Be praying that God would lead me to teach the messages He has planned for these teens in Crockenhill.

Preaching at Family Service

I was able to go and lead a family service for Elmstead Baptist Church. This was a great time where all ages stayed in the service. We got to sing worship songs together with actions (also a great form of cardio), learn a memory verse, learn to do some magic tricks, and open the Bible to learn about how Jesus Christ radically changes lives. It is always great to make the Bible come alive and help kids have fun at church while learning about Jesus. I even had one of the little girls there ask to be in my photo when I went to take one for this prayer letter. I am excited to go back and lead another one in March. Be praying God would speak through me in the next family service.

Prayer Requests

1. God would make clear which church He needs the Reeves and I to be serving at on Sundays.
2. The new Crockenhill student ministry I am leading.
3. For a few more churches to come on board with financial support.
