... The Night Cometh When No Man Can Work ...

Dear Pastor and Co-Laborers,

It is always a blessing to hear the birds singing early in the mornings, for that is a sure sign that there is a renewal at hand. The leaves begin to emerge, the flowers begin to bloom and everything begins to turn green again. It is when these changes take place that the hindrances; like the flu and weather, seem to fade away in the past, that our goal is also renewed. Even though one has been faithful in the midst of those hindrances, we can again look to being faithful when the Lord returns, which we trust is the goal of every one knows the Lord.

It is a blessing to get out on our regular days during the week to put out tracts, letting people know that God loves them. We have put out 4k thus far this year; but the real blessing is to have a lady going with us who was physically unable to go last year. During the school Easter break we had others helping in this ministry as well.

We have had a further response to the N.T that went out last year. A man named Dag came along with his partner for the morning service. He is heavily influenced by Dawkins, (atheist), but does believe there is a God and seemed to be seeking some truth. We asked if we could visit him but he refused to give us his details, so we are praying that he will return in the near future. Please pray for Dag. His partner was only present to support Dag but she didn't want to know the truth.

Niamh, who received the Lord last year has begun to take the discipleship lessons. Sarah Jane, who has taken them, is also going through the lessons again to give Niamh some confidence and help in the process.

Please pray with us as we plan our Friends Day, May 13th. We will have a buffet along with a short video, then go home for the day. We will be inviting; Allen, Aaron, Ryan, John and others as well. Pray with us, that these people will sense they are heading down the wrong path.

We continue to look for a new missionary to support. We have two possible candidates. Please pray with us for this.

May and I will be going on a bus tour beginning May 1st and returning May 3rd. We will be going to Amsterdam for the day. We would appreciate your prayers for our travels.

Again we thank you for your faithfulness to these people. May we all desire to fulfil the goal to be faithful when the Lord returns!

Servants,
Dennis & May
