

Privacy Policy

The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study, Inc., is committed to the highest standards of integrity in all forms of communication including fund raising efforts and to the ethical collection, retention and use of information about students, prospective students, donors and donor prospects in the furtherance of our ministry. We are committed to balancing our needs to collect and record information with your right to privacy and security.

The following statement explains how we will handle information we learn about you from your visit(s) to our Web site.

When you visit our site to read or print off information...

On the Wisconsin Center for Christian Study site or the ntwrightonline.org site, we do not require you to identify yourself or reveal any personal information. We do track the number of visitors to the different sections of our site. As it is currently configured, we track the Internet (IP) address, browser details, and referring page of visits to ntwrightonline.org . This is used to track the number of unique "hits" to different sections of our site.

When you identify yourself by providing your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, etc...

The only way we will obtain identifying information about you when you visit our site is if you choose to provide that information to the Wisconsin Center for Christian Study. You choose to do so when you send us an e-mail, use our site for course registration or make a donation

.

•Online Profile Updates and Donations

•If you complete a course registration form and share your personally identifying information, this information will be used only to process your registration or provide you with more targeted content. We may use your contact information to send further information about our organization or to contact you when necessary. You may always opt-out of receiving future mailings; see the "Opt Out" section below.

- Sending us an EmailYou also may decide to send us personally identifying information, for example, in an electronic mail message containing a question or comment, or by filling out a Web form that provides us this information. We use personally identifying information from email primarily to respond to your requests. We may also use your email to contact you in the future about our programs that may be of interest.

- Opt-Out of Continuing Email Updates

- Our email update program provides users the opportunity to opt-out of receiving communications from us through a special online form. You may un-enroll from receiving the email updates that are usually in the form of a newsletter..

When you provide personal details in order to make an on-line donation...

The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study will collect any information needed to complete your transaction, receipt your gift and communicate back to you. Our site uses a securely encrypted contribution response form. Credit card numbers are used only for contribution processing and are not retained for other purposes.

The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study desires to protect your information and hold it in confidence. This is our guarantee that we will not misuse the information you entrust to us, and that we will never rent, exchange, sell or give your name to another person or organization for their use.

- Non-public information (i.e. donor giving records) is the property of The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study and shall not be given to persons other than those who are involved with the cultivation or solicitation efforts or those who need that information in the performance of their duties for The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study.

- Documents containing information pertaining to donors and/or prospects will be carefully protected by The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study and will be irrevocably destroyed when no longer needed.

- The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study donor list will not be exchanged with, given to, sold to or rented to any other organization for its own use. The Wisconsin Center for Christian Study will also not share any personal information collected on any visitor to its web site with any other organization for its own use.