PRAYER FOCUS

- Amid the global concerns about health and conflict, please pray for peace and healing.
- Pray for Dame Sarah Mullally as she takes up the role of Archbishop of Canterbury.
- Pray for those who teach or speak on Sundays whether in church as a sermon, or at Sunday Club or Pathfinders.
- Pray for the family and friends of Michael Titmuss who died recently. The funeral will be this Wednesday, 4th February at All Saints at 11.30am.
- Ann Dale, Ruth Rowan, Evelyn Quarles, Amy Parrish, Will Loveridge, Gabriel Iacaban, Keith Usher, Jane Leuchars and Frances Mills.

RELEASE INTERNATIONAL

Pakistan - Pray for Strength to Stand (S2S) groups, which work to increase resilience and protection for some of the most persecuted, deprived and vulnerable Christian women in Pakistan. One participant, Shimon said, "I feel a new strength within me -a strength that comes from God's Word and the encouragement that I receive from my group family."

Pray for God's comfort and strength for Nawab Bibi, whose husband Zafar Bhatti died, shortly after being released from prison in October. He had been behind bars since 2012, having been falsely accused of blasphemy. Nawab is supported by a Release International partner.

Somalia - Pray for the underground church in Somalia. There are no church buildings in the country and evangelism is illegal. Pray that the church would remain faithful and grow in numbers as Christians meet in secret. Pray for the terrorist group al-Shabaab, which pursues and kills Christians within Somalia. May God bring many of its members to Christ.
